

Antiquing & Shopping

Panama City is a shopper's dream. Enjoy antiquing and shopping while exploring the historic, waterfront neighborhoods.

FULL-DAY ITINERARY

Begin your tour in Historic Downtown Panama City

WHERE TO PARK

Park in one of the numerous parking lots located at various public buildings such as City Hall at 9 Harrison Ave. or the nearby Marina Civic Center at 8 Harrison Ave. On-street parking is also plentiful throughout the area. Historic Downtown Panama City encompasses the section from Oak Avenue to McKenzie Avenue and along Harrison Avenue from 11th Street to the Panama City Marina.

Check the Historic Downtown Panama City Facebook page for upcoming events and other visitor information specific to the neighborhood.

Historic Downtown Panama City – (850) 785-2554

Or go online at <http://destinationpanamacity.com/events/> for a comprehensive overview of activities and events happening throughout Panama City.

Bring a good pair of walking shoes because there are a number of shops you'll want to explore. Historic Downtown Panama City is shopper's dream come true offering charming retail shops, antique stores and restaurants. Panama City is unique in that it has not only preserved many of its original downtown buildings, but some of its original downtown businesses as well. Take some time to explore the unique shops, visit historical buildings and sites, and enjoy the warm breezes coming off the bay.

ANTIQUING

Elegant Endeavors Antique Emporium, 551 Harrison Ave., is the largest antique mall in Panama City, with two stories and over 22,000 square feet filled with beautiful antiques, collectibles, dolls, jewelry and more! The owners of the shop are both doll makers and have traveled the world to teach their craft, and you can view their custom collection of handmade dolls in their shop.

Elegant Endeavors Antique Emporium – (850) 769-1707

Located a few doors down at 535 Harrison Ave. is Main Street Antiques. This shop is filled with an eclectic mix of items ranging from vintage and antique furniture, jewelry, sterling silver, vinyl records to contemporary items. The selection of items has been carefully curated by the owner to create a unique shopping experience for all styles and tastes. Located inside Main Street Antiques is the Randy Johnson Art Gallery, a small art gallery featuring the artwork of local artist Randy Johnson.

Main Street Antiques – (850) 640-3390

Continue walking down Harrison to The Little Mustard Seed, 437 Harrison Ave., for a one-of-a-kind shopping experience. Explore three floors showcasing the work and collections of local vendors ranging from DIY to vintage collectibles to refurbished and restored antiques. Also featured is the custom woodworking, from home decor to furniture, by owners Greg and Rebecca Snow. Stay for awhile and shop at the clothing boutique on the upper level, or participate in a DIY workshop.

The Little Mustard Seed – (850) 818-0691

SHOPPING

Panama City has a thriving music scene and an eclectic mix of artists and performers. Stop in Leitz Music, a family owned music store at 508 Harrison Ave., for a wide range of musical instruments to keep your creative juices flowing! Listen to the Destination Panama City theme song to get inspired by the 200-person Ukulele Orchestra of St. Andrews, and shop Leitz Music for their unique selection of ukulele's!

Leitz Music - (850) 769-0111

Planted True, 311 Park Ave., is a boutique with West Coast inspired clothing and accessories for women. Each of their items are carefully selected and you'll never see the same thing twice. Only a few of each item is ordered, so don't pass up the opportunity to shop, or you'll likely miss out!

Planted True - (850) 640-3553

The Maddie Hatter, 228 Harrison Ave., is a baby and children's boutique selling the latest trends in boys and girls fashion. They also have a unique selection of toy's and games for your little ones.

The Maddie Hatter - (850) 252-6039

Stop for lunch at Bayou Joe's Marina & Grill, 112A E 3rd Ct., one of Panama City's best-kept secrets. Overlooking beautiful Massalina Bayou, Joe's has the best of both worlds: delicious food and stunning, 180-degree views of the water combined with shopping. Browse Bayou Joe's amazing condiments for sale, like their popular Fuzzy Navel Jelly or Mean Jean Hot Sauce.

Bayou Joe's Marina & Grill - (850) 763-6442

Continue your tour in Historic St. Andrews

WHERE TO PARK

Park in the parking lot located at Oaks by the Park at 2715 W 10th St. or across the street at the Destination Panama City Visitors Center at 1000 Beck Ave. There is also ample on-street parking in the area.

To get there from Historic Downtown Panama City, follow Harrison Avenue north to 11th Street. Turn left (west) on 11th and continue on for about 28 blocks until you reach Beck Avenue.

OR turn left (west) off of Harrison onto 6th Street and follow it until it merges with West Beach Drive (ALT U.S. Hwy. 98). Stay on Beach Drive all the way to Frankford Avenue. Still following ALT U.S. 98, turn left off of Frankford onto West 9th Street, which dead-ends at Oaks by the Bay Park. Turn right on Chestnut Avenue and travel one block to West 10th Street. Turn left onto West 10th and proceed one more block to Beck Avenue.

ANTIQUING

At Estate Treasures, 1121 Beck Ave., you'll find anything from vintage and antique estate items, custom handmade furniture, to brand new items such as pillows, linens, jewelry, and home decor.

Estate Treasures - (850) 215-3782

SHOPPING

Two Sisters Custom Designs, 1010 Beck Ave., offers the work of local and regional artists, and has a large selection of beautiful jewelry, accessories, and home decor. This shop offers a taste of something fun and different for shoppers with a unique selection of boutique style items.

Two Sisters Custom Designs - (850) 785-1899

Relax and explore at the Mariner's Daughter Emporium & Pub, 1123 Beck Ave. While you're shopping, try a mimosa or craft beer from their wine bar. Here you'll find a range of coastal gifts and décor, including a variety of jewelry, vintage furniture, and mermaid items.

Mariner's Daughter Emporium & Pub – (850) 814-7376

A unique arts and culture venue, Floriopolis, at 1125 Beck Ave., features a gallery showcasing the work of more than 100 local artists. Here you'll see pottery, jewelry, sculpture, paintings, photography, and more. Shop the market for one-of-a-kind creations and relax in the inviting public art courtyard. Take a 10-minute art break by participating in Art on the Spot, free mini art lessons disguised as fun projects that happen daily.

Floriopolis – (850) 249-9295

Embraced by St. Andrews Bay, Panama City offers a myriad of water sports. For the traveler seeking outdoor activities, stop in Sunjammers Watersports, 1129 Beck Ave., specializing in fishing and recreational kayaks and paddle boards. They also offer a full line of clothing and other accessories to equip you for a full day on the water!

Sunjammer Watersports – (850) 257-5030

Little Village, 2808 W 12th St., is a waterfront shopping and entertainment venue. Known as a place where you can trade in the sun and sand for shade and serenity, Little Village's inventory is constantly changing. Discover handmade, eco-friendly, fair trade, recycled, and re-purposed items from around the globe with a special selection of local artists' work.

And the best part is that while you shop, you can sip on a cocktail or two or snack on Finns Island Style Grub cuisine and listen to live music.

Little Village – (850) 215-8780

WHERE ELSE TO SHOP

Panama City Mall – (850) 785-9587

Plum Delightful – (850) 769-6979

Tranquility Blu – (850) 252-8790

Out of the Box Gifts & More - (850) 763-3232

Jennifer M. Vigil
President & CEO
Destination Panama City