Panama City is situated on the Gulf Coast of Florida, surrounded on three sides by water and sheltered by Shell Island, an uninhabited barrier island.

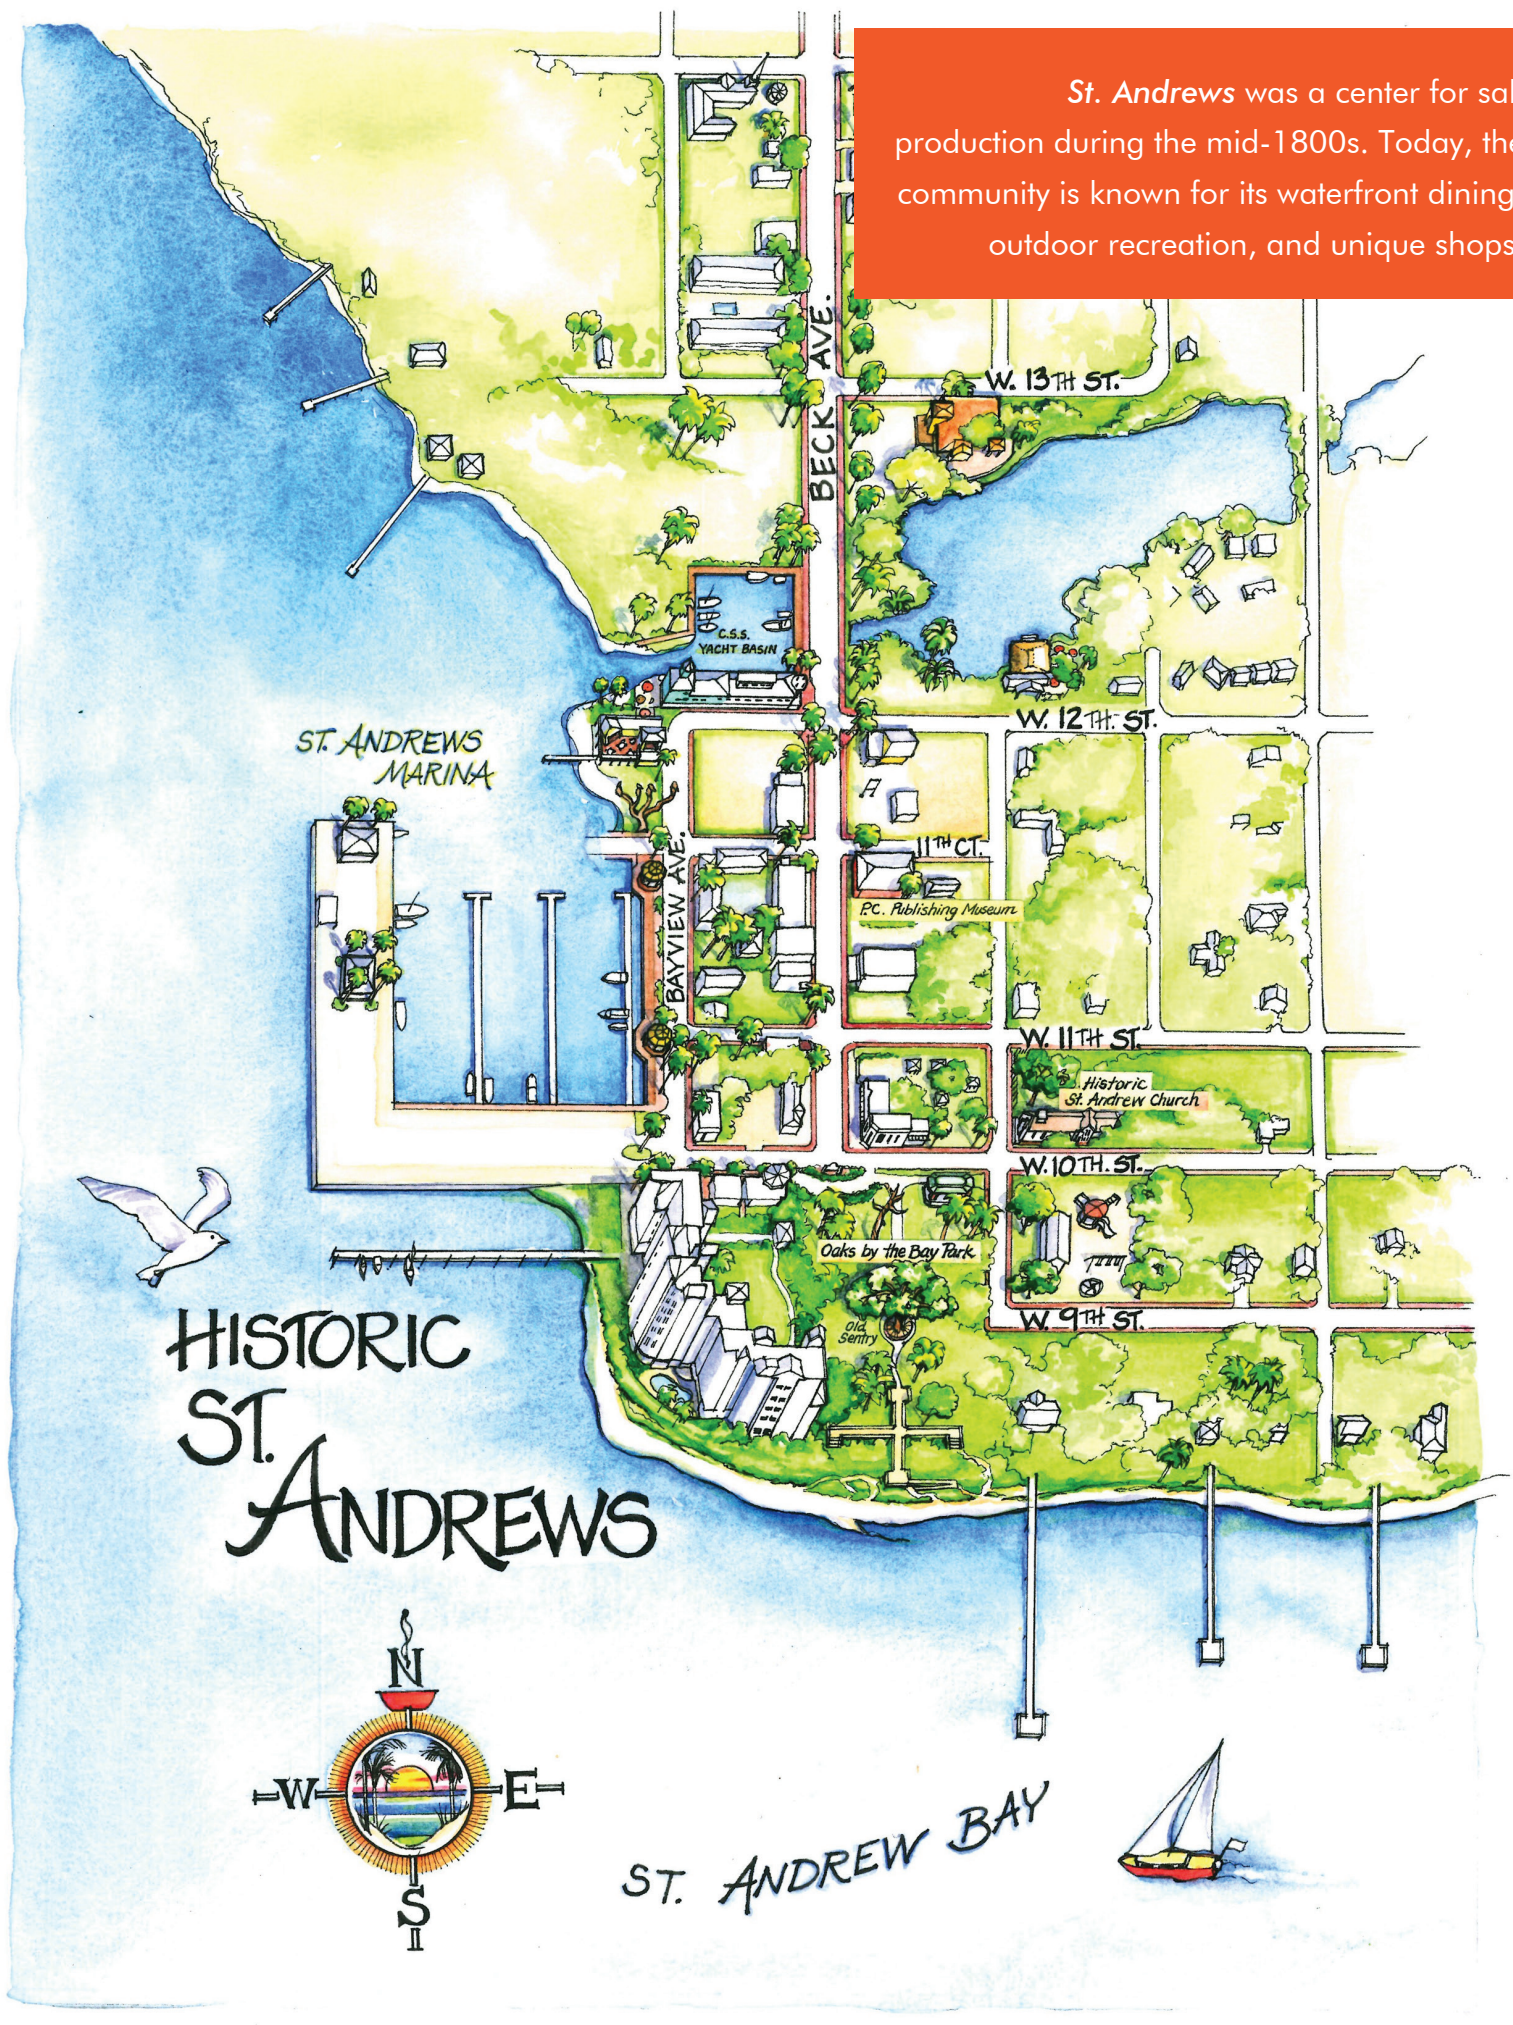

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN PANAMA CITY

Panama City's Historic Downtown district is a hub for locally owned restaurants, art galleries, and boutique shopping experiences.

St. Andrews was a center for salt production during the mid-1800s. Today, the community is known for its waterfront dining, outdoor recreation, and unique shops.

PANAMA CITY'S MOST eye-catching PLACES

1.

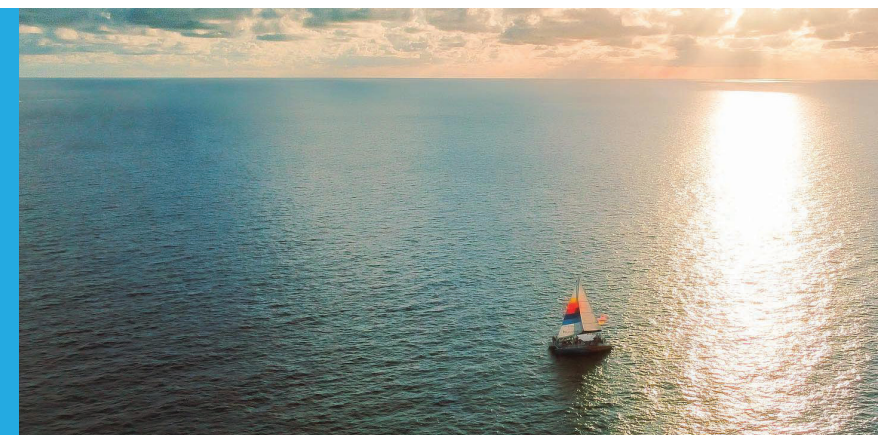

You'll want to bring your camera, or at least put your camera app to use, on the PANAMA CITY MURAL TRAIL. Currently, over 18 Instagram-worthy murals are located throughout the city, featuring artwork by local, regional, and nationally known artists.

2.

There's no better place than ST. ANDREWS BAY for capturing stunning sunsets. Top spots include the St. Andrews Marina and Oaks by the Bay Park. To make your sunset a little more delicious, take in the view at a waterfront restaurant like Uncle Ernie's or Steam on 5.

3.

OAKS BY THE BAY PARK is famous for more than just sunsets. A majestic live oak tree known as "The Old Sentry" has stood guard over the waterfront park for more than 250 years. While you're there check out the chainsaw sculptures by local artist Chad Gainey, who transformed hurricane-damaged trees into intricate depictions of coastal sea life.

4.

One of Panama City's most photographed spots is surprisingly, a taco shop. EL WEIRDO features eye-popping art from 12 different artists. The restaurant is covered, inside and out, with everything from large murals to intricate Lego sculptures and found-object structures. Best of all, the tacos are sure to please.

5.

Take a photo at the "Love PC" installation located at the PANAMA CITY VISITOR'S CENTER, and let your followers know how much you're enjoying your visit. The visitor's center is also the perfect spot to begin your Panama City adventure. We'd love to help you plan out your day or your week! #LOVEPC

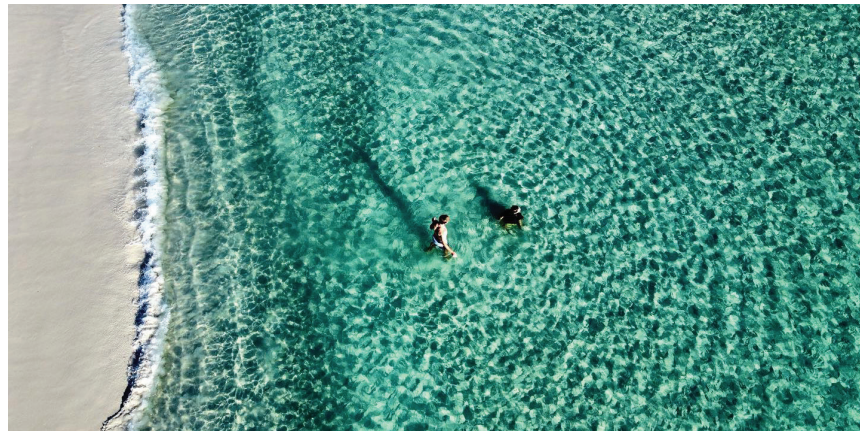

6.

The Panama City CENTER FOR THE ARTS features a flurry of butterflies on the front of its building. Be sure to go inside, too. The center displays art exhibits and offers a variety of classes and workshops. It's also the home base for one of Panama City's most iconic events, the annual FLLUXE Arts Festival, hosted by the Bay Arts Alliance.

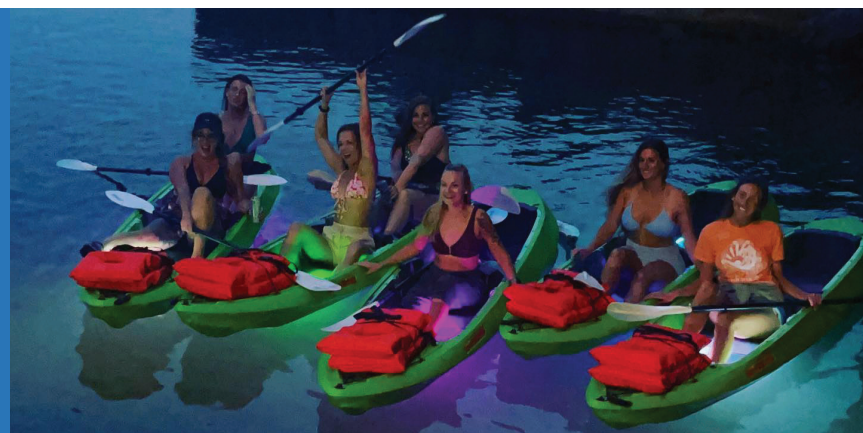

7.

SHELL ISLAND is an uninhabited barrier island that offers pristine white-sand beaches, clear water, and stunning views of the Gulf of Mexico and St. Andrews Bay. Take a short boat ride to reach the island, and you can spend the day beachcombing, snorkeling, hiking, and fishing.

8.

KAYAKING is always a good time. But for a uniquely visual twist, try a glow-in-the-dark kayaking experience. Kayaks and paddle boards are illuminated with glowing LED lights to shine the path ahead while providing a colorful spectacle for on-shore onlookers.

Boating on the Bays

Panama City is surrounded on three sides by water, so it's no surprise that boat rentals and charters are always popular. If you'd prefer to leave the driving to someone else, you can book a dolphin tour, sunset cruise, or fishing charter.

Paddling Excursions

Kayak and paddle board rentals are a great way to experience the natural beauty of Panama City – and get some exercise, too! Balancing on a stand-up paddle board can be a little tricky. If you're a first-timer, it's a good idea to get a lesson along with your rental.

Walking Tours

Both St. Andrews and Downtown Panama City are walkable, and you can see a variety of charming, interesting, and historic sites along the way. A Historic Tour Guide digital brochure is available online. Or download the Florida Stories app for an audio tour of 10 stops in St. Andrews.

Panama Pedal Tours

Looking for a unique way to explore the city's hotspots? Panama Pedal Tours now offers guided tours of Downtown Panama City and St. Andrews on multi-passenger party bikes. Up to twelve people can pedal, and a driver is provided.

Inshore Fishing

Top spots for inshore fishing include West Beach Drive, Oaks by the Bay Park, and the St. Andrews Marina. A Florida fishing license is required to fish. You can purchase a 24-hour pier license at the St. Andrews Marina for just $2.

OUT and ABOUT

LIVING IN the moment

Whether you're traveling with friends, family, a special someone, or a furry companion, Panama City is a great place for good times.

HANGOUT THAT HAS EVERYTHING

Papa Joe's Bayside is a popular waterfront destination that combines food trucks with live music, a sand beach, pontoon rentals, boat tours, and fishing charters.

UNIQUE NIGHTSPOT

Thistle & Thorne is a cozy and welcoming downtown pub that hosts an eclectic range of musicians, spoken-word performances, and events. A small speakeasy-style tattoo parlor called The Prominent Goat is located behind the pub, featuring the services of some of Panama City's most talented tattoo artists.

HOT GLASS CLASS

Panama City Hot Glass offers classes, workshops, and demonstrations on the art of glassblowing. In about 30 minutes, you can learn the basics of glassblowing and create your own colorful hand-blown glass art.

CHILD'S PLAY

The Science and Discovery Center of Northwest Florida offers lots of fun exhibits to fuel young imaginations, creating interest in the sciences through active play.

ISLAND-INSPIRED VENUE

With its large palapa and funky decor, Little Village is a charming shopping and entertainment venue that transports you to the tropics. Catch live entertainment there most nights of the week – acoustic acts, open mics, comedy, and more. Check out FINN'S Island Style Grub for delicious street tacos and other specialties.

Explore THE PAST

In many ways, Panama City is a new city with an old soul. Our city is constantly renewing and revitalizing, but we always take care to remember the past and appreciate its lessons.

VINTAGE PRINTING

The Panama City Publishing Company Museum in St. Andrews has three antique printing presses and original vintage letterhead tools on display. Call ahead to schedule a demonstration of the presses.

Rosenwald High School

History Class Brewing Company

LOCAL LORE

The Bay County History Museum offers a number of educational exhibits. It includes a display about one of the area's earliest settlers, Jose Massalina, a free black man of African and Spanish ancestry, and his son "Hawk." Museum exhibits also tell the story of the Salt Works Raids that disrupted Confederate salt production during the Civil War.

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

The Supreme Court case Gideon v. Wainwright originated in a trial at the Bay County Courthouse. This landmark case upheld the right for criminal defendants to be represented by an attorney, regardless of their ability to pay for legal services. The courthouse is on the United States Civil Rights Trail.

HISTORIC SCHOOL

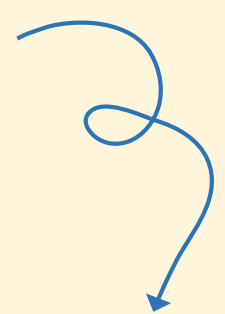

A historical marker in front of Rosenwald High School recognizes its importance as an early African American school, established through a partnership between former Sears Roebuck & Company president Julius Rosenwald and Booker T. Washington. The school is listed as a Florida Heritage Site. Rosenwald Schools was a Progressive Era program where nearly 5,000 rural African American schoolhouses were brought to life through shared ideas and a partnership between Rosenwald and Washington.

HISTORY & BREWS

History Class Brewing Company is a restaurant and brewery that celebrates the history and local stories of Panama City. It displays everything from sports memorabilia to historic photographs and even signage from businesses long gone, but remembered by many. The brewpub offers a full menu and a constantly changing lineup of beers on tap.

A PANAMA CITY Portrait

There's just something about Panama City that draws both artists and lovers of arts and culture. Whether you dabble in the arts yourself or admire the talents of others, you'll find our city to be a destination that both inspires and invites the diversity of artistic expression.

PANAMA CITY CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Operated by Bay Arts Alliance, the Center for the Arts hosts more than 30 art exhibitions per year and also schedules concerts, open mic nights, films, receptions, classes, and lectures.

AMELIA G. TAPPER CENTER FOR THE ARTS AT GULF COAST STATE COLLEGE

Offering contemporary art exhibitions, lectures, and events, the Amelia G. Tapper Center inspires, challenges, and educates visitors and artists alike to deepen their understanding of contemporary art.

FLORIOPOLIS

Floriopolis displays works by local artists and offers workshops for aspiring artists of all ages and skill levels. The St. Andrews nonprofit also hosts live performances by local artists, musicians, and writers throughout the year.

NATIVE SPIRIT MUSEUM & GALLERY

Native American artifacts made of shell, bone, stone, and clay are on display at this museum and store. The museum's collection includes tools, arrowheads, and mammoth and mastodon fossils.

GALLERY OF ART 850

The Gallery of Art was one of North Florida's only art galleries when it opened in 1966. Today, the museum displays paintings and sculptures from artists of local and national renown. On the side of the building, an immersive mural by artist Jane Perry features native plant and animal life.

A PACKED DAY FOR you & your pup

In Panama City, we love to have fun with our furry friends, and you can, too. Here's a suggested plan for making the most of your day with your furry friend.

Start your day with a walk on BEACH DRIVE and be sure to stop at the beach at ASBELL PARK, which offers a perfect opportunity for you and your pet to cool off in the shallow bay waters.

HARRISON'S KITCHEN & BAR is a perfect option for lunch. The downtown waterfront restaurant offers pet-friendly outdoor seating and a special menu just for canine companions. The restaurant is located right next to the Panama City Marina along a paved walking loop that's popular with dog walkers.

For dinner, grab an outdoor table at TRIGO SAN FRANCISCO STYLE DELI in downtown Panama City for a quick bite before heading to DOGS & DRINKS, where you can let your pup make a few new friends while enjoying a variety of "mixed breed" drinks, wines, beers, and non-alcoholic beverages.

Next, head to historic St. Andrews and the scenic OAKS BY THE BAY PARK for a leisurely afternoon walk. The dog-friendly five-acre park offers a boardwalk to the bay and an observation platform with benches.

Ready to turn in? Head to one of Panama City's pet-friendly hotels like HOTEL INDIGO, which welcomes guests with small- and medium-sized pets.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

THE perfect ROMANTIC WEEKEND

There's just something about the unique coastal scenery and easygoing spirit of Panama City that makes it a perfect destination for couples. The water is, of course, always a draw. But there are lots of romantic things to do on dry land, too.

On your first day in town, try something you've never done before. You and your date can sign up for a glassblowing class at PANAMA CITY HOT GLASS and learn how to make your own brightly colored glass keepsake. Or give standup paddle boarding a try. KATIE'S PADDLE BOARDING ADVENTURES will bring everything you need to you and even give you a personal lesson.

Next, venture out onto the St. Andrew Bay with EMERALD COAST SAILING EXCURSIONS for a three-hour sunset cruise on their 38-foot sailing yacht. Take a bottle of wine and a couple of glasses on board to make the cruise extra special.

On day two, unwind with a relaxing couples massage at SERENITY SOUTH MASSAGE STUDIO on Harrison in Downtown PC. After your one-hour session is complete, take a stroll down Harrison Avenue to THE LITTLE MUSTARD SEED and enjoy ice cream and homemade fudge, with a unique shopping experience.

PANAMA CITY'S TOP annual events

KREWE OF ST. ANDREWS MARDI GRAS

February 2-4, 2025

The streets of Historic St. Andrews will be lined with people of all ages to watch colorful floats, catch beads and doubloons, and enjoy local food, drink, and live music. The Mardi Gras Parade is one of Panama City's largest events, regularly attracting crowds of 50,000 for the festivities.

FLLUXE ART FESTIVAL

2025

Presented by the Bay Arts Alliance & Center for the Arts, the iconic annual FLLUXE Art Festival combines works from local and national chalk artists with a variety of creative vendors, live music and more. filluxeartsfestival.com

ART BREAK DAY

September 5, 2024

All around the world, people take a break on the first Friday of September to create art and build community. In Panama City, Floriopolis and numerous other art sites in St. Andrews will be hosting Art Break events, encouraging art lovers of all ages, from fine artists to first-time doodlers, to participate in the fun. artismoving.org/artbreakday

HALLOWEEN

October

Panama City celebrates the spooky season with a variety of spooky, kooky, and fun activities. Highlights include the Witches of St. Andrews Annual Charity Bike Ride and the Fright Nights immersive haunted house experience, held at the Panama City Center for the Arts.

OKTOBERFEST IN HISTORIC DOWNTOWN PANAMA CITY

September 27-28, 2024

The city's 36th annual Oktoberfest will include craft and seasonal beer tastings, live polka music, and authentic German cuisine, plus a variety of other dining options from local food truck vendors. The family-friendly event is held on Harrison Street in Downtown Panama City.

ST. PADDY'S DAY FESTIVAL

March 17, 2025

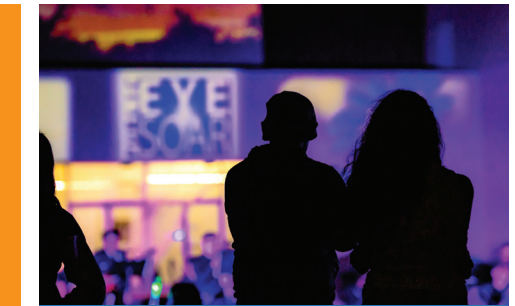

Pack your green clothes, and plan to be on Harrison Avenue for St. Patrick's Day festivities. House of Henry Irish Pub hosts a block party with green beer, Irish food, live music, and lots of shenanigans for kids and adults.

JAZZ BY THE BAY FESTIVAL

November

Every fall, the Panama City-based Gulf Jazz Society puts on a free jazz festival at Oaks by the Bay Park that features local performers and nationally known acts. In addition to the annual festival, the Gulf Jazz Society presents numerous jazz concerts throughout the year.

REDFISH FILM FEST

2025

A brand new film festival is coming to Panama City. Redfish Film Fest will showcase a variety of documentary films, featuring several stories of local and regional interest. The event will take place at the Panama City Center for the Arts and other venues throughout downtown PC. redfishfilmfest.com

BLESSING OF THE FLEET AND SOCK BURNING

May 17, 2025

For more than 25 years, Panama City's Blessing of the Fleet has been held to invoke God's blessing on all those involved in fishing and other maritime commerce. Panama City's event includes a fish fry and ceremonial sock burning to commemorate the arrival of warm weather.

PANAMA CITY SONGWRITERS FESTIVAL

November 8-9, 2024

Music fills the air of stages, courtyards, and galleries throughout Panama City each year for the Panama City Songwriters Festival. Musicians across a wide variety of genres perform their original songs and showcase their musical talents.

PUBLIC EYE SOAR

November 8-9, 2024

The Public Eye Soar is a luminous art festival that features projection art created by local and international artists. The free, immersive event lights up buildings and objects around the city with animation, illustration, photography, and other visual spectacles.

SALUTE TO FREEDOM

July 4, 2024

Destination Panama City hosts a patriotic Independence Day celebration, complete with food trucks, children's activities, live music, and the best viewing location in the city for the annual fireworks show over St. Andrew Bay.

PLAY MUSIC ON THE PORCH DAY

August 31

Musicians across Panama City will be joining in Play Music on the Porch Day, a worldwide musical celebration of music, peace, and community. playmusicontheporchday.com

CHRISTMAS PARADE

December 7, 2024

The holidays come alive with Historic Downtown Panama City's annual Christmas parade. The parade includes colorful floats, lighted vehicles, local marching bands, dance groups, and festive costumes, all culminating with an appearance from Santa Claus himself.

BOAT PARADE OF LIGHTS

December 14, 2024

Boats strung with Christmas lights and other decorations illuminate St. Andrews Bay each year for the annual Boat Parade of Lights. The event will be returning for its 38th year in 2024.

LOCAL FLAVORS

A visit to Panama City is only truly complete when you experience the unique flavors found at our restaurants. Enjoy some amazing food and make some delicious memories.

A taste OF PANAMA CITY

EAT LIKE YOU LIVE HERE

While you can find just about any food and drink you might be craving in Panama City, there are a few that truly stand out. Here's a guide to some of our favorite choices.

FRESH SEAFOOD

Naturally, Panama City offers excellent seafood thanks to our perfect location on Florida's Gulf Coast. Fresh oysters, wild-caught shrimp, and bay scallops are always popular, as are a variety of Gulf finfish, including grouper, snapper, and flounder.

SOUTHERN COOKING

Southern cooking is on the menu throughout Panama City, everything from comfort foods like fried chicken and barbecue to Cajun and Creole specialties.

LATIN-AMERICAN CUISINE

Satisfy your cravings for Mexican, Cuban, and Caribbean flavors. Tacos are an especially popular option, served in the traditional style or stuffed with creative combinations of veggies, meats, and sauces.

CRAFT BEER

Panama City has embraced the craft brewing revolution, with three local brewpubs offering their own small-batch microbrews and several more offering extensive beer menus for discerning drinkers. Panama City's Ale Trail celebrates 16 of these top stops for beer lovers.

SWEET TREATS

Life's just a little sweeter in Panama City. Famous donuts? We got 'em. Gourmet cupcakes? No problem. Indulgent stuffed cookies? You bet!

PANAMA CITY

oyster trail

Panama City restaurants offer an abundance of one-of-a-kind, locally owned restaurants offering everything from oysters served raw, baked, fried, sauteed, or broiled to mouthwatering international cuisine. There are currently 13 restaurants on our Panama City Oyster Trail. Each has a different vibe, but oysters are always on the menu and in season.

Try an oyster for the first time.
Win a keepsake.

CHARTER smarter

Booking a local charter in Panama City is one of the most enjoyable and dependable ways to catch sport fish and explore the area's diverse aquatic habitats. Top nearshore catches include trout, redfish, and flounder. Head to deeper waters for red snapper, kingfish, and mahi-mahi. We've listed just a few tips below to maximize your enjoyment, and your catch, too.

1.

FIND YOUR PERFECT CHARTER

View the charter listings in our guide, or on our website, to narrow down your list. Most charter operators have websites where you can learn more about their boats, experience, trip duration, amenities, and policies. Keep in mind that some charters specialize in fishing while others focus on scenic tours, diving, or other experiences.

2.

BOOK YOUR TRIP

Once you have your trip dates and group size locked in, you can reserve your charter. Ideally, you should book your charter several months in advance, especially during peak seasons. It's always a good idea to call before booking online if you have any special requirements or questions.

3.

CONFIRM THE SPECIFICS

Before your trip day, talk to your charter operator to relate any important information, ask questions, and confirm your trip. Let them know if you want to target a specific type of fish or type of fishing. Will you have any first-timers? Are you planning to keep your fish or toss them back? What items should you bring, or not bring, on board?

4.

HAVE A PLAN FOR YOUR CATCH

Most charters will clean and fillet your fish for you once you've returned from your trip. There's no need to bring a large cooler on-board. Just leave the cooler in your vehicle and ice down your fish for the drive home.

NO LUCK? HIT THE MARKET.

While Panama City is a top saltwater destination, there are no guarantees in fishing. Fortunately, it's easy to score some fresh seafood harvested daily from local waters. Tarpon Docks Seafood Market offers everything from sushi-grade tuna to red snapper, grouper, swordfish, and gulf and bay shrimp.

SHRIMP CEVICHE

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pound medium-sized shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 1 cup fresh lime juice (about 8-10 limes)
- 1 cup fresh lemon juice (about 4-5 lemons)
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes, halved
- 1/2 cup red onion, finely chopped
- 1/4 cup cilantro, chopped
- 1 jalapeño, seeded and finely chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 avocado, Salt and pepper to taste

DIRECTIONS

1. Marinate the Shrimp: Chop the shrimp into bite-sized pieces. Combine chopped shrimp with the fresh lime and lemon juice (make sure the shrimp is fully submerged). Cover the bowl and refrigerate for 90 minutes. The acid in the citrus juice will "cook" the shrimp. Drain excess citrus juice after marinating.
2. Mix in Fresh Ingredients: Add the cherry tomatoes, red onion, cilantro, jalapeño, and minced garlic to the shrimp. Gently toss the ingredients together. Season with salt and pepper to taste.
3. Chill and Serve: Cover the bowl and refrigerate the ceviche for 30 minutes to allow flavors to blend. Before serving, give it a final toss. Serve the shrimp ceviche in individual bowls garnished with avocado slices and accompanied by tortilla chips. For an extra kick, add a few dashes of your favorite hot sauce!

PATIO life

There's just something about the combination of fresh air and flavorful food that takes a dining experience to the next level. Here are some of Panama City's perfect patios for dinner and drinks.

CASUAL ISLAND VIBE

Sip a frozen cocktail and dig into your favorite seafood, taco, or burger selection at Barefoot on the Bay. Their spacious deck overlooks the St. Andrews Bay, providing scenic water views and gentle breezes.

SOUTHERN CHARM

Located on the ground floor of Hotel Indigo in downtown Panama City, Tarpons offers classic favorites from jambalaya to key lime pie. Their covered veranda overlooks the Panama City marina.

MUSIC ON THE PATIO

You'll find Millie's in a historic building along a bustling stretch of Harrison Avenue – or you can just listen for the sound of local musicians who perform on their patio several nights each week. Highlights of their menu include homemade soups, desserts, and beignets.

COURTYARD CUISINE

A favorite among St. Andrew's locals, Alice's on Bayview offers outdoor dining in their cozy tree-shaded courtyard. The restaurant has an eclectic menu featuring fresh seafood, smoked chicken, steak, and Southern classics.

PANAMA CITY ale trail

Whether you're planning a pub crawl or just looking for the perfect spot to enjoy a new IPA or specialty brew, Panama City has you covered. Our Ale Trail will take you on a tour of favorite restaurants and pubs with extensive craft beer lists and some locally brewed favorites, too.

DOWNTOWN

EL WEIRDO may be known for delicious tacos and wildly artistic decor, but they're also an outstanding brewpub, keeping a handful of beers brewed in-house on rotation.

At the waterfront restaurant HARRISON'S KITCHEN & BAR, you can enjoy a curated selection of Florida brews, popular domestics and imports, plus a draft beer of the week.

HISTORY CLASS BREWING COMPANY offers a constantly changing selection of beers, ciders, and seltzers crafted by their talented brewers. Selections range from traditional favorites to "experiments" incorporating unique ingredients and flavor profiles.

HOUSE OF HENRY IRISH PUB AND EATERY is, not surprisingly, the number-one seller of Guinness in Bay County, and also offers a selection of craft beers in bottles and on tap.

THE CRAFT BEER EMPORIUM has the largest line-up of craft beer in Panama City and also the only smoke-free billiards hall. Their extensive beer list features more than 300 craft beers, ciders, and wines.

MOSEY'S DOWNTOWN offers live music and a game room with darts, billiards, and ping pong. Their pizza is always popular, as is their large and carefully curated beer list.

THE PLACE DOWNTOWN is a sports bar that's popular for its cold beer and hearty food. A variety of brews, from the familiar to the obscure, are available.

THISTLE & THORNE gives off a dark European pub vibe, with a wide selection of craft brews, plus wine and cocktail selections.

ST. ANDREWS

COPPER TAP GRILL is the place to go for made-to-order seafood and steaks in a casual setting. Their beer menu includes a selection of craft beers that can be sampled in a flight of six four-ounce servings.

If you're catching some live music at LITTLE VILLAGE, don't miss out on their great selection of craft beers, assuming their homemade sangria doesn't reel you in first.

At THE GROCERY KITCHEN & TAPROOM, you'll find more than 50 beers on tap with an emphasis on local and Florida-based breweries.

ST. ANDREWS SLICE HOUSE offers pizza by the slice, with over 50 variations available. Their beer list is truly impressive, with nearly 100 brews available on tap.

You can catch the big game at ST. ANDY'S SPORTS PUB and enjoy their great selection of beers on tap, wine, and mimosa specials.

SALTY OAK BREWING COMPANY brews a selection of beers that can be sampled in their tasting room. Hot sandwiches and chicken wings provide the perfect accompaniment.

THE DIVE bills itself as Panama City's "premier dive bar." Located on the St. Andrews waterfront, The Dive is always a favorite for their great seafood, gorgeous sunset view, and selection of drafts, cocktails, and whiskeys.

UNCLE ERNIE'S BAYFRONT GRILL offers a wonderful selection of craft beers, plus beer flights for sampling up to 12 different selections.

ELSEWHERE IN THE CITY

The NO NAME LOUNGE is the last stop before you cross the Hathaway Bridge. They're a Panama City landmark, in business for over 40 years. Expect ice-cold beer and live music Thursday through Saturday.

TROPICAL DRINKS BAR is located just a few miles east of the downtown area in the Millville neighborhood. The restaurant is known for great Colombian food and a selection of beers from Colombian, as well.
